VINCI has signed an agreement to acquire the Romanian group EnergoBit

- Strengthening VINCI Energies' position in Romania
- Revenue of €100 million in 2024 for 825 employees

VINCI Energies has signed an agreement - subject to approval by the relevant authorities - to acquire the EnergoBit group, a leading player in electrical infrastructure in Romania whose headquarters are in Cluj-Napoca.

Founded in 1990, EnergoBit generated consolidated revenue of €100 million in 2024 with a workforce of 825 employees in its eight locations across the country.

This acquisition comes at a promising time in Romania against a backdrop of significant needs in terms of energy transition and infrastructure modernization. EnergoBit is recognized for its expertise in engineering and installation of electrical substations, overhead transmission and distribution lines, as well as network monitoring and automation. It also has a workshop for assembling transformers and medium-voltage switchgear, enabling it to provide its public and private customers with tailor-made solutions.

The transaction will extend to Romania the footprint of the Omexom brand – dedicated to energy infrastructure – and will strengthen VINCI Energies' position in the country. VINCI Energies has been present in Romania since 2007 and currently employs 1,500 people there.

In 2024, the VINCI Group generated revenue of more than €200 million in Romania, mainly through VINCI Energies (more than €150 million) and VINCI Construction (nearly €50 million).
